
WHAT HAS BEEN HAPPENING AT ST. MARTIN'S

On Sunday 7th May

Layla Rose was baptised together with Kirsty her Mum! It was a real joy to welcome both of them into the Church. It was also a real joy to celebrate these baptisms afterwards in the 'Railway

Inn' with members of the family

OFF TO ROME

In May Fr. David travelled to Rome, where on the Wednesday morning he was able to see Pope Francis during a General Audience in St. Peter's Square.

SUNDAY 9TH JULY

Advance Notice: on Sunday 9th July we will be joined by fiends and colleagues of Alan Harwood to commemorate his work at St. Martin's as Director of Music. On his memorial stone is inscribed AMDG. This Latin tag is usually translated in English as 'All for the Glory of God', which aptly summarises the work of a Church Musician.

SEEN IN ROME

For the Hat Competition at the Garden Party!

NONA HALE

It was a delight to welcome Nona Hale to St. Martin's for two Sundays, back from Spain. It is indelicate to mention a lady's age, but for one as old as she, Nona is in remarkable health. And as this is typed Nick is with his mother in Spain, in the sun and not the rain!

SEEN IN ROME

Paper Shoes !!

Guarding the Pope

SPRINKLES

Members of the Sunday School, scholars and mothers, made their way to Sprinkles in New Canal recently to enjoy Ice Cream and good company. Bille was one of them. He came after finishing this British Isles Jigsaw Puzzle, which he used as a Prayer Mat, having written a prayer for each city. Good Man!

