
THE CHAPLAINS OF MARY MOTHER OF THE CHURCH

This is the insignia of 'The Chaplains of Mary Mother of the Church', into which order I was inducted at the May Devotion of the Society of Mary at St. Silas Kentish Town on May 5th. Some fifty priests, bishops and archdeacons concelebrated the Festival Mass in the course of which we were inducted by the Superior-General of S-O-M, Bishop Robert Ladds, the former Bishop of Whitby. In all some 150 priests and bishops have qualified as Chaplains and will guarantee Sacramental Assurance within the Church of England, working all the while to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the indispensable rôle of His Virgin Mother in the that Proclamation.
